

Overtime & Working Time Policy (2024)

1. Scope

All employees except members of the Management Committee (see work regulations, annex 2).

2. Limits

Maximum 9 hours per day and 45 hours per week without prior legal justification; absolute ceilings of 11 hours per day and 50 hours per week. Minimum 11 hours of rest between two working days.

3. Prior approval

3.1 Overtime must be requested in writing by the manager in advance (e-mail or the "OT request" form in the timesheet tool).

3.2 Overtime not approved in advance will not be compensated.

3.3 Managers must ensure that planning allows work to be done within normal hours.

4. Compensation

Approved overtime gives right to: overtime premium of 50% (100% on Sundays and public holidays), and compensatory rest, unless the employee opts for voluntary overtime under the applicable legal regime.

5. Recording

Hours are recorded daily in the timesheet tool and via badge. Managers validate timesheets weekly. Managers may correct timesheets that contain errors; corrections must be explained to the employee.
